FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 4.9.08 IL & WI market

Garvin & Krummick join Dixon Companies, Inc.

McHENRY — William J. Garvin and Matthew L. Krummick have joined Dixon Companies, Inc. Garvin is a new Superintendent for Dixon Construction Group out of the company's Wausau, Wisconsin office; Krummick is a new Project Manager for Dixon Construction Group out of the company's McHenry, Illinois office.

At Dixon Construction, Garvin is in charge of managing the 5,000-seat Cedar Creek Ice Arena in Rothschild, Wisconsin. He will be responsible for running the day to day operations of the job site, including coordinating field activities, directing contractors, scheduling crews and inspections, and making sure work is proceeding according to schedule.

A resident of Appleton, Wisconsin, Garvin comes to Dixon Construction with over 40 years of experience in the industry. In his previous employment as a Project Superintendent for a construction company in Appleton, he oversaw multi-million dollar commercial, industrial and hospitality projects in the area.

Krummick is in charge of Dixon Construction's hospitality projects in McHenry and Libertyville, overseeing building and room additions to the Hampton Inn in both cities. As Project Manager, he will be responsible for performing pre-construction activities, estimating costs and materials, negotiating supplier contracts, developing specifications, and overseeing field operations.

A resident of Gurnee, Illinois, Krummick has over 10 years of experience working as a Project Manager for development firms throughout Illinois. In his previous employment, he was responsible for a $40 million commercial retail development project in Burr Ridge that was named by Midwest Construction as "Best of 2007" in its category.
